AUTUMN 2018

HELLO PANTO DIARY

The clocks have gone back and the nights are starting to draw in. This can only mean one thing – Autumn is upon us and we are therefore due another briefing in the world that is Hutton Rudby Dramatic Society.

To be honest, there's not a great deal of news to share with you at the moment. So this is a smaller than usual edition of StageWrite with a couple of updates to confirm details.

As there will not be another edition of the newsletter until the other side of the holiday season, I would like to take the opportunity to wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a relaxing and joyous New Year.

Oh, and break a leg to everyone in Panto!

Mikey.

Rehearsals for the 73rd Annual Pantomime are going well and starting to take shape. The cast are fervently learning their lines and moves.

Both the junior and senior chorus are busy learning lyrics and melodies and dance moves. It is promising to be a very good production.

We will be requiring help to sell tickets in The Hub. If anyone is available to spare some time to help with this please get in contact. Tickets will be on sale from early December.

The desire is to have people available in The Hub every morning between 10am and 12pm from Tuesday to Saturday to assist with anyone who would like to purchase tickets for the Pantomime.

We also need prizes for the raffle. If you have anything suitable, particularly if it is child friendly, please drop it in to the Village Hall during one of the rehearsals.

PUT A RING ON IT

Congratulations to Roger and Debbie who got married on Saturday 20th October.

Our front cover shows Debbie at panto rehearsal prior to the wedding with the card and gift from members of the Society.

Thank you to everyone who contributed.

The next edition of StageWrite will be the Winter edition. If you have anything that you would like to be included please send it by email to huttonrudbydramaticsociety@gmail.com by Sunday 13th January.

EMAILS

We use a single email address to keep members updated and informed of all Dramatic Society communications.

The email account is managed by our Publicity and Marketing Officer Mikey Beard. To ensure that you stay up to date with everything happening within the Dramatic Society please ensure you have our email address added to your friends list and that it doesn't go into your junk email folders. The address that we use is huttonrudbydramaticsociety@gmail.com.

We keep the distribution list up to date in accordance with our privacy policy. We only send emails to current members of the Society. Anyone who does not renew their membership to the Society is removed from the distribution list following a reminder that their membership has lapsed. We will also remove anyone who requests that we don't send them information by email.

We typically send four emails a year to update members about what is going on in the Society. There is then the occasional email regarding particular productions if they have requests for help or other news.

We will never disclose your email address or membership details to other members. All email is either individually addressed or the BCC field is used to email the entire membership.

RUNRAISING

In our last edition we ran an appeal on behalf of Joe Joyce who is raising funds for a number of charities.

Joe has almost reached his target of £3000. At the time of writing this update he had achieved 86% of his goal. If you haven't donated and would like to you can still do so at the Just Giving website.

The website for Joe's fundraising efforts is:

An Extraordinary General Meeting was held on Wednesday 29th August. The meeting was called to discuss the production calendar for the next couple of years.

Sarah Nicholson and Sam Joyce presented their idea for a Birthday Revue, to be held in 2020. Holly Henderson and Sophie Hills expressed a desire to produce an American themed Revue.

Following a discussion at the EGM, and subsequently with email confirmation it has been decided and agreed that Sarah and Sam will produce their Birthday Revue in the Spring of 2020. Holly and Sophie will produce their American Revue in the Autumn of 2020.

There was a proposal from Marian Bateson that she would look at Farndale's Macbeth script for the Spring production in 2019. Marian expressed a wish that she would like to be in it.

Debbie Pearson and Dave McAsey will produce the Junior Production in September 2019. A title is yet to be decided.
